

VIDEO OF FIFTIES RETURN TO OKINAWA

Trip Organizer Larry Laurion ('58) and Bill Melver ('60) announce the availability of "Dragons Come Home," a professionally-created video recording the historic November 01 return to Okinawa and Kubasaki High School of Fifties Alumni. This two-hour documentary takes you the length and breadth of Okinawa today as you travel back to "Paradise in the Pacific" to rediscover the natural beauty of our beloved island and her peaceful people. See sights you'll recall; see sights you've never seen before; see the changes. See it all!

This absolute jewel is a must have - don't pass up this opportunity to rejoice with the Fifties alums on their historic and nostalgic return "home." For only $34.95 (plus $7.95 S&H) you, too, can participate in the joy of rediscovery and share in the fantastic experience of again seeing the "Rock". Who knows, seeing this great video may make you want to be part of the next "Return to Okinawa."

To order, complete the form below and return with your check payable to: "Dragons Come Home."

Please send _____ copy(ies) of Dragons Come Home at $34.95 ( $7.95 S&H), total $42.90 each.
